THURSDAY, JUNE 14, 1888.

Official Paper of County and City.

FRANK A. SMALLEY,
Attorney at Law

ABILENE, KANSAS.
Southeast Corner Broadway and 3d Streets.

Farmers are more than jubilant over the grand crop prospects.

R. F. Russell, of this city, was last week granted a patent for a hame-string.

J. W. Kirkwood and David Barecroft, of Kane City, Pa., are visiting their brother-in-law, W. J. Kirkwood.

Abilene will be well represented at Chicago and other eastern cities. Everybody seems to be taking a vacation.

In giving the list of officers elected by Abilene Lodge No. 93, A. O. U. W., we unintentionally omitted the name of Dr. C. W. Brooks, medical examiner.

It was a deserved honor to re-elect Rev. J. A. Bright secretary of the association. Abilene is honored in having two of the officers this year, Hon. C. H. Lebold being treasurer.

Saline county's normal institute began Monday at Salina. J. E. Williamson, of Topeka, conducts, and Miss Ida Ahlborn, Baker University, and T. J. Rollman, Brookville, instruct.

Rev. R. Wake, who was stationed here as pastor of M. E. church three years, but now of White City, has, with his wife, been visiting friends here during the past three days.

For pure, upright, downright and all-around honesty commend us to the district clerk's office, in which an umbrella has stood for three weeks awaiting its owner, who appeared on the scene today.

A lively little skirmish was held at the race track Saturday afternoon. Five horses were speeded, the prize being a carriage wheel. Colonel Fisher's black trotter driven by Geo. Brillhart was the winner, time 2:59.

The elegant new residences of A. Fry, E. D. Humphrey and J. B. Edwards, on North Buckeye, are nearing completion. O. L. Moore is expending considerable work making the Thornton residence one of the finest in the city.

A parasol, two or three pairs of gloves and four or five veils, left in the Bonebrake last week during the Sunday school convention, can be recovered by calling on Manager White, at the Kansas Farmer's Insurance company's office.

An interesting program is being prepared for the teachers' social and reunion to be held on the opening night of the institute, July 9th. It is intended to make the social one of the pleasantest ever known. It will probably be held on the court house lawn.

M. D. Good came in last Tuesday from Concordia. He has disposed of his business interests in that city, has moved his household goods here and will in the future make his home in the glorious "Belle of the Smoky." One by one the wanderers return, drawn by the magnet of Abilene's attractiveness.

The correspondent of the Capital was evidently much impressed with the goodness of Abilene as compared with wicked Topeka. The report of the association ends:

The very air of Abilene seemed to be permeated with piety. The brakemen as they passed through on their trains whistled refrains from Sunday school songs and the policeman who watched the last delegate off softly sang a few bars of one of Excell's hymns.

Great preparations are going forward for the Democratic pow-wow to be held in Herington, Friday evening. It is believed that by dragging the whole county and part of Morris, enough of the admirers of little boy Cleveland and grandpa Thurman can be gathered to make a fair audience. The committee on enthusiasm has sent to Kansas City for several barrels of the material which will be dispensed freely.

A fire alarm was rung in from first ward last night about 9 o'clock. The blaze proved to be at the unoccupied house of Mrs. Meyers on East First street. The promptness of the fire department saved the building, little damage being done. The fire was started in the cellar; it is supposed to have been the work of the precocious fire-bugs who burned H. J. Landis' house recently. They should be summarily dealt with, if caught.

Joel Hersh, of Newbern township, returned yesterday from a visit to his brother-in-law who lives on Chapman creek, in Clay county, about eight miles north of Manchester. Mr. Hersh reports great damage done by the hail storm which passed through that section about two weeks ago. Orchards that would have borne 500 to 1,000 bushels of apples this season are ruined and will probably never recover. The storm was about five miles wide and was the worst that ever passed over this country. Corn, he says, is looking well.

GREAT CASH REMOVAL SALE!

1000's OF DOLLARS WORTH OF GOODS TO BE UNMERCIFULLY SLAUGHTERED.

We have a purpose in this sale and we propose to make it the most interesting of any sale ever held in Abilene. We propose to put the knife in deeper. We propose to make greater cuts in prices. We propose to give the people an opportunity to buy first-class goods at lower prices than they have ever had a chance to buy them in Abilene before. We shall not even stop at cost on some articles. We are going to move 1000's of dollars worth of goods during this Great Removal Sale, and to do this we know that the prices must be low enough to make it an object for the people to buy. Read our announcement below.

This Great Removal Sale Will Positively Commence Saturday Morning, June 16, '88.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

About the first of August we will remove from our present location to our own building, at the corner of Broadway and Third Streets, now occupied by Simon Rothschild. We own all the shelving, all the counters and all the fixtures in the store room that we are now occupying. The shelves and counters are filled with stacks and stacks of goods, and what are we going to do with these immense piles of goods while we move our shelving and counters into our new room. The shelving and counters will all have to be made over and remodeled when we move them into our new room, and the question has come to us what will we do with the 1000's of articles that our shelves are loaded with when we come to remove our shelving. We have answered the question in this way. We must get rid of the goods. We must close them out. We are going to close them out. We are going to make prices that will move the goods at once. Every article in the house will be sold at a reduction. In no case will we ask the regular price on a single article in the house but everything will be sold at a positive reduction. The people of this county and city know when we advertise a thing we always carry it out to the letter. You cannot afford to buy a dollars worth of Dry Goods, Boots, Shoes and Millinery Goods elsewhere during this Great Removal Sale. Read carefully some of the great cuts we have made and come at once and take advantage of the great bargains, the like of which has never before been known in Abilene.

Remember this sale begins

Saturday Morning, June 16th.

A. E. BISHOP & CO.

Another Murderer.

Sheriff Swartz brought up from Council Grove today, J. B. Allen, who recently poisoned his whole family with arsenic. One of the children has died. Allen will be confined here until time for his trial.

A. O. U. W.

The following officers of the A. O. U. W. for the coming term were elected Thursday evening: R. B. Jacobs, M. W.; J. W. Monroe, F.; Geo. Sherer, O.; D. L. Pisle, R.; M. V. Brillhart, Fin.; T. E. Dewey, Rec. The lodge is in a prosperous condition and is doing good work here.

Republican Central Committee.

A meeting of the Republican central committee was held Tuesday to arrange for sending three delegates to Junction City to meet a like number from Clay county and with them arrange the time of election, and place and time of meeting of delegates from Clay and Dickinson counties, making the 25th Senatorial district, to nominate a candidate for state senator.

Off for the East.

Mesdames Malott, Como, Biting, Phelps, Hargreaves, Brown, Dewey and J. P. Quinn and wife made a portion of a large party which left yesterday over the Rock Island in a special car for the east. Agent O. P. Byers accompanied them as far as Topeka.

Fifteen Salina people were also aboard in charge of Agent Keller. Ed Croft, Walter J. McDonald, A. J. Markee and five sons and several others left over the Union Pacific for Cincinnati.

A large number of Knights of Pythias also aboard the noon train.

Another Great Convention for Abilene.

Geo. S. Fisher, State secretary of the Kansas Young Men's Christian Association, came in Monday at 7:45 on the Santa Fe and spent the evening in consultation with some of the workers here, leaving on the midnight train for Topeka.

It is possible that Abilene may secure the State convention which meets in October, and which would bring to our city 500 of the live young men of the State.

Abilene's workers never do anything by halves and they will use every effort to secure this great meeting if possible.

District Court.

Court commenced Monday on the civil docket of 260 cases, 60 of which are jury cases.

Tyler vs. Stoad, demurrer to evidence by defendant, sustained by the court and judgment given for plaintiff as prayed for.

Calkins vs. Larkins, another of the T. C. Henry cases, stricken from docket for want of evidence on side of prosecution.

August Knouth vs. Missouri Pacific railroad. Settled by agreement of parties.

The jury in the case of the State vs. Wells charged with stealing oats, returned a verdict this morning of larceny and fixed the value of the oats at $12, the penalty for which is imprisonment in the county jail.

State vs. John Platt, transcript from justice court, allowing dead animals to lie exposed, was found guilty. Fined $1 and $100 costs.

L. A. Reed vs. T. C. Henry, being some more of the difficulties which hang about Mr. Henry's business relations here. A judgment was rendered in favor of plaintiff.

Noble vs. Decker on trial this afternoon.

Salina, too, wants a lot sale.

Hope will have a K. of P. lodge next month.

Kansas City did up Herington at base ball to the tune of 25 to 5.

Herington's ten-stall addition to the Rock Island round house is under way.

Abilene's handsome mile track is completed and we can now boast of the best speeding in the State. Drive up to the grounds and see it.

Hope Herald: Wheat and oats all over this part of the county are looking well and we have every reason to expect a big crop. Corn, also, is coming on nicely.

George Cowperthwaite, who was so seriously injured some time ago by falling through a trap door in front of the Snyder house, is, we are glad to say, rapidly recovering.

We were shown a bunch of wheat this morning that was grown by E. Fisel, a prominent farmer of Cheever township, that was well filled and bids fair to make a large yield.

In addition to Prof. W. H. Wagner and Misses Kane and Weller, the Enterprise school board has engaged Mr. Eyer, of Morris, Kas., and Miss Bennett, New York, thus completing the corps of teachers.

A big "jam" occurred at the Rock Island bridge over the Smoky at Enterprise last week. It was feared that the bridge might be carried away, but men succeeded in loosening the logs and they floated down stream.

Thos. P. McElrath, the publisher of the first New York Tribune and a partner of the immortal Horace Greeley, died recently at New York. He was a great uncle of our townsman and prominent merchant, D. S. Clarke, of Third street.

Thomas Morgan, the convicted murderer, attempted suicide Friday evening by swallowing a quantity of camphor. A doctor was called and a stomach pump soon relieved the man's illness. He evidently isn't "stuck" on mining coal at the penitentiary.

Yesterday noon the family of Mrs. M. Sutherland living on North Olive street was surprised and frightened by the gasoline stove used in the kitchen exploding and setting on fire every thing in the vicinity. Prompt action on the part of the members of the family extinguished the flames without much damage having been done, except blistering the furniture somewhat and shocking the nerves of the ladies of the household.

Oh, the boys are home from college, with their heads so full of knowledge; that it really is an effort to adjust their Derby hats. They have mastered all the phases of the ball-room's giddy mazes and are experts in the matter of applying new cravats. They wear rings upon each finger and soft odors round them linger, for commencement was a season of delightful show parade. They can talk of wondrous capers, never read of in the papers, and can picture all the games of ball the "soph's" and seniors played. But you ask them for the reasons of the changes of the seasons or why the choicest flour is found within the hardest wheat, and they'll look with startled glances, as though struck with some new fancies, and reply they have to see a man that's just across the street.

Lost—A red cow with white face and right horn broken off. Please to send. Taken up will be rewarded on notifying 27-1 J. F. Nicholson, Abilene.

5c. Every yard of our fancy 8c dress prints will be sold at 5c per yard.

IN THE FIRST DEGREE.

The Morgan Jury after being out Twenty-two Hours Returns a Verdict of Murder in the First Degree—Other District Court News.

At 2 p.m. Thursday the Morgan jury came in from their deliberations which had extended from 4 o'clock yesterday. Upon being asked for their verdict, they gave it "Murder in the first degree."

Morgan received the news with considerable emotion for he had almost made himself believe that he was innocent. The verdict was not entirely unexpected by the public, though many thought there would be no agreement. Unless a new trial is granted, Morgan will spend the remainder of his days inside the bars.

The verdict is a notable victory for Attorney Hurd and W. S. Stambaugh who by their indefatigable labors have trailed the murder to the end, through a variety of complications and difficulties. They deserve much credit for their eminent success.

A G. A. R. Meeting.

Taking advantage of the presence of Commander Feighan, Adjutant General Coulter and Capt. J. B. Johnson, the G. A. R. Post held a public meeting in the court house Saturday which was addressed by those gentlemen in short, rousing speeches, after which an informal reception was held until 3:30 when they took the west-bound passenger train for Ellsworth. Markee's band furnished the music.

The City Schools.

We have been permitted to examine the report of the committee on schools made to the city board of education. It is a voluminous document going into details in regard to the condition of various rooms, studies, etc., of the city school system. We, however, make the following extracts which show the general tenor of the report: "We believe we are safe in concluding that, as a whole, our schools are in a prosperous condition. * * * In all the branches taught, with the exception of writing, there is every indication that thoroughness is intended and obtained in a high degree. * * * In every department of our schools where one of our high school graduates has been in charge, order and decorum have prevailed * * * and we do not hesitate to advise that such graduates be given the preference when they are applicants for positions in our schools."

Important Decisions.

The State Supreme court made last week two decisions of considerable interest to our readers. One was the appeal case of the Dickinson county commissioners vs. M. Hogan. The case grew out of damages due for a right of way through Hogan's land, and was appealed by the commissioners from the District court decision. The Supreme court affirmed the District court's action. The other was a criminal case from Wallace county in which one Mc. Micken, who had committed a murder, was for some reason not tried in three terms of court immediately succeeding the crime. The Supreme court ordered the prisoner discharged. Both cases were notable victories for the firm of Burton & Moore which had them in charge. Their successes before the state courts are making this firm justly famous.

Mr. J. S. Morgan has purchased the McClaren property, corner of Kuney and Sixth street, and will make it his home.

Closing Exercises of the S. S. Workers.

The closing session of the S. S. convention was not as largely attended as the former ones on account of the pouring rain that made the streets almost impassable. Still the opera house was well filled.

The song service was as interesting as usual. Prof. Excell drilled the singers on the newly learned songs.

Mrs. J. A. Bright presided at the piano as she has at several of the sessions. Her superior accompaniments have added much to the strength of the excellent music of the convention. A letter of regret was read from Rev. T. R. Peters, who was on the program but not able to be present; also a greeting from an Iowa convention.

The president announced that five-minute speeches would be in order. The first talk was by Rev. Parks, of Clay Center, who gave a few thoughts upon the influence of the work that we do.

Rev. D. C. Milner discussed the topic "What shall the harvest of this meeting be?" in his usual animated style.

He was followed by J. W. Campbell, Topeka. Mr. Campbell urged more conversion, more down-right consecration.

Rev. J. L. McKeehan, Abilene, made one of his characteristic addresses, interesting the audience by the freshness of his illustrations and the smoothness of his eloquence.

Prof. Excell then sang by request, "Keep in the middle of the road."

Judge Cunningham was introduced. He spoke of the logical sequence that God does exist as taught by the Old Testament writers.

Hon. C. H. Lebold spoke briefly, expressing the interest he felt in S. S. work and his enjoyment of the session just closing.

Judge Culver reviewed some of the thoughts suggested by the convention, especially the importance of winning souls to Christ.

Rev. A. T. Riley, of Topeka, spoke for the Topeka Summer Chautauqua.

Prof. Excell tenderly sang as a solo "All the world to me."

Dr. Crafts then interested the audience for half an hour with another collection of gifts from his overflowing treasury of anecdote, philosophy, and humor. He referred sympathetically to the recent death of Major Whittle, the famous evangelist, who passed away from earth a few days ago. He is in love with Kansas and Abilene. He will prove a good missionary for our glorious State when he returns to his New York home. Certain it is that our citizens will ever have a warm place in their hearts for Wilbur F. Crafts.

General Secretary Bright added a few earnest words, breathing enthusiasm and hope in the work of the association and thankfulness for the confidence in him as shown by his re-election.

J. F. Drake made a short statement for the executive committee, reviewing its work and outlining the future. The committees on arrangements and entertainment were praised extravagantly for their admirable thoughtfulness and willingness, and Abilene "without any taffy" was eulogized highly for her hospitality.

President Redden then called for one-minute speeches from the delegates. Several took opportunity to express their appreciation of Abilene's kindness.

Then the parting prayer was made, the parting song sung and the delegates with mutual good wishes and hearty handshakes dispersed, and the 23rd annual meeting of the State S. S. association was over.

I. O. R. M.

At a regular meeting of Shabbona Tribe No. 12 Friday night the following officers were elected: Richard Waring, Sachem; Theo. Mosher, senior sagamore; J. B. Edwards, junior sagamore; C. W. Burton, keeper of wampum; H. J. Hodge, chief of records; L. H. Faulkner, W. N. Hendricks and Chas. Estes, trustees.

The Tribe has a very beautiful wigwam, decorated in the highest style of art by the celebrated painter, J. C. Walker, and is in a very prosperous condition.

Kansas Weather.

From the signal corps report we gather the following regarding last week's weather in this State:

There has been a general deficiency in rainfall during the past week. The precipitation did not reach one inch at any point. The southern part of the state was least fortunate. The temperature and sunshine have been about normal. The warm weather has given an unusual impetus to vegetation, and corn, especially, has responded to the new order. From all parts of the state come reports of magnificent prospects. In the counties where wheat harvest is beginning there is reported a remarkably rich yield.

Wedded.

We clip from the Animoso, (Iowa) Eureka the following regarding one of Dickinson's teachers who recently left for the east. We extend our congratulations to the happy couple. At Bedford, Iowa, May 22, by Rev. McDade, Mr. Walter Manly, of Fairview, Iowa, and Miss Mary K. Wood, of Viola, daughter of Mr. John W. Wood.

Mr. Manly is the son of Mr. Wm. Manly, and has been teaching in Kansas for the past two years with the best of success. Mrs. Manly has also been engaged in the same calling in Conway, Iowa. They will remain in this vicinity during the summer. Many warm friends of both families, known as the most upright and intelligent people in Jones and Linn counties, tender the newly-united couple heartiest congratulations, in which the Eureka joins most cordially.

Bounteous Showers.

Dickinson county was Friday evening favored with another magnificent, soaking warm rain which swept the county from north to south, insuring prosperity and happiness to every farmer of Dickinson. Abilene and vicinity were nicely flooded. The south part of the county which needed the moisture more, was given a larger supply.

Considerable lightning and a little hail accompanied the storm. The former struck the Presbyterian church and damaged the roof and demoralized the electric lights somewhat. The barn of J. W. Jenks was struck but not much harm done although it was full of stock. At Enterprise, the Rock Island water tank was visited and one corner broken off.

Another Despicable Deed.

Abilene has some mean people. We hate to admit it but we are compelled to. Last night some low-minded villain entered the garden of Rev. John Curtis on North Fourth street and stole a large quantity of new potatoes. Not content with carrying away what vegetables were accessible, the marauder destroyed nearly all the vines of the remainder.

There is a pretty strong suspicion as to who the guilty party is and some startling developments may be looked for.

The amount of the theft is not so great, the wretch could have had the potatoes if he had asked for them and was in need, but the dirty mean spirit of the action is almost incomprehensible.

County Commissioners.

The board of county commissioners yesterday inspected the Sutphen's Mills bridge. They found the abutments badly undermined and decided that something must be done with it. They ordered the channel near the bridge cleaned out and at the next meeting they will decide what is to be done.

This morning they visited the poor farm and after thorough investigation declared everything in good shape.

After returning to the county clerk's office the board adjourned until the next regular meeting, July 2nd.

Pierson-Lesher.

Last evening occurred another pleasant event which gave one of Abilene's fair daughters to the hands of a protector for life.

At the spacious farm residence of Abram Lesher, a mile and a half northwest of the city, occurred the wedding of his daughter, Miss Carrie, to E. R. Pierson, of Norwich, Conn. Rev. Dr. Hasson, of Peabody, performing the ceremony.

A large number of guests gathered to witness the interesting ceremony and extend their congratulations to the newly wedded couple. The evening, after the wedding, was passed in conversation and listening to music. etc. A bounteous feast was spread at 10 o'clock and at midnight the bride and groom were accompanied to the depot where they took the midnight train for the East.

They will spend two or three weeks on a honeymoon trip, during which they will visit Chicago, New York and other large cities, and then will settle down in their future home, Norwich, Conn., of which city Mr. Pierson is a prominent business man.

Miss Lesher, now Mrs. Pierson, was one of the young ladies of whom Abilene was proud and Mr. Pierson is fortunate in winning her as a help-mate.

The Reflector tenders the bride and groom sincere wishes for their happiness.

Among the attractions to be found on the inside of this paper, are the full proceedings of the Democratic National convention and a strong sketch by Prof. Ad. H. Gibson, of Missouri.

You will find the largest stock in the harness line, and the lowest prices at Spangler's.
